The 2015 Caroline Zelaznik Gruss and Joseph S. Gruss Lecture in Talmudic Civil Law

Liberal Multiculturalism as a Remedy for the Religion and State Relations in Israel

Shahar Lifshitz

In 1987, Joseph Gruss, a banker who founded Gruss and Company, established the Caroline Zelaznik Gruss and Joseph S. Gruss Chair in Talmudic Civil Law at the University of Pennsylvania Law School. One of the responsibilities of the Gruss Chair is to present lectures to the public on Talmudic Civil Law.

The 2015 Gruss Lecture will be presented by Prof. Shahar Lifshitz, who is the dean of Bar-Illan University Law School. He is also a Senior Research Fellow at the Israel Democracy Institute, where he co-directs the project on Human Rights in Judaism. Prof. Lifshitz has been a visiting professor at New York University Law School, Cardozo Law School and Columbia Law School. Together with Israeli Supreme Court President Dorit Benish, Prof. Lifshitz co-chairs the Forum for Cooperation between the Israeli Supreme Court and Israeli Legal Academia.

This program has been approved for 1.0 substantive law credits for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credits may be available in other jurisdictions as well. Attendees seeking CLE credit should bring separate payment in the amount of $30.00 ($15.00 public interest/non-profit attorneys) cash or check made payable to The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.

This event is free and open to the public. Please register for this event: http://bit.ly/18414zh