Cause Lawyering: Bridging the Gap between Direct Client Services and Macro Policy Work

Time: 12:00pm - 1:30pm

Location: Gittis 1, Berylson Family Classroom

How can I have an impact as an attorney? Should I work with individual clients, or on broader policies? Do I have to choose one or the other? If I work at a firm, how can I best contribute to social justice work?

Join us for panel discussion with inspiring attorneys who are successfully bridging the gap between direct client service and macro policy work. They will discuss the rewards and challenges of integrating these aspects of public interest lawyering.

Panelists:

Lisa Margulies L'12, Associate, Community Resources for Justice

Joanna Visser Adjoian L'11, Co-Founder & Executive Director, Youth Sentencing & Reentry Project

Moderator:

Catherine C. Carr L'79, Former Executive Director, Community Legal Services

Sponsored by CASAC, WRLS, and YAP

Free. Lunch Served to those who RSVP.
