

Fall 2018

Now in its fifth year, the Leo Model Foundation Government Service & Public Affairs Initiative at Penn Law is devoting increased resources to better prepare students to be leaders in government and policy making. Here are highlights from the past semester.

Annual dinner celebrates the Initiative's growth and impact

Alison Kehner, Counsel to the U.S. Attorney for the EDPA, gave inspiring keynote about government service.

Penn Law alumni win federal and state offices in 2018 elections

Read more about the five alumni who were successfully voted into public office this past Election Day.

EDPA U.S. Attorney William McSwain gives Veterans Week keynote address at Penn Law

His lecture discussed the importance of military values and civility in civic discourse.

Executive Education Program: Regulatory Analysis and Decision-Making

Learn how to better understand regulatory and compliance-related issues.

Russia's New Generation Warfare and the Threat to the Free World

Former National Security Advisor and retired U.S. Army LTJG H.R. McMaster delivered this year's Haaga Lecture.

Meet the 2018-2019 Visiting Policy Fellows

This year's Visiting Policy Fellows are Sozi Pedro Tulante, Ilana Eisenstein L'04, and Joshua Wright.

The unique benefits of Delaware Chancery Court clerkships

Alumni discuss public service experiences in pivotal court addressing corporate governance issues.

enr
ITY OF PENN

Philad
5.898.

M. Katherine Stroker L'04 dedicates career to the Peace Corps

She has been committed to the organization as a volunteer, lawyer and now the deputy chief executive officer.

Phila. DA Larry Krasner shares his vision with Penn Law students

DA Krasner visited campus to discuss his goal of revolutionizing the role of the prosecutor.

Save the date for the annual D.C. Dinner: Mar 15, 2019

Join fellow students and alumni to celebrate service in Washington D.C. with food, drink, and great conversation.