

September 15, 2016

CERL Presents - Producing Leaders of Character and Integrity: Instilling Values into Public Life

Time: 8:00am - 8:00pm

Location: Golkin 100, Michael A. Fitts Auditorium

This symposium will explore the concept of ethical leadership. It will examine the effectiveness of educational, military, political, professional and business institutions in helping to cultivate ethical leaders. CERL's contribution to this topic reflects its focus on rule of law values: where individuals have internalized respect for the rule of law their stewardship is both ethically grounded and maximally impactful.

View event website

8:00AM – Registration and Breakfast

8:45AM – Welcome Remarks: Ted Ruger, Dean of University of Pennsylvania Law School and Claire Finkelstein, Director of the Center for Ethics and the Rule of Law (CERL)

9:00– 10:15 AM Panel 1: Character and the Rule of Law

How can respect for the rule of law be cultivated in our future leaders and how can institutional cultures foster that cultivation?

10:30 – 11:45AM Panel 2: Inculcating virtue: Education and Modern Leadership

What role does character have to bear in what constitutes ethical leadership and how much do situations, environments and organizations encourage the optimal manifestation of those dispositions?

Lunchtime Keynote

Dr. Albert Pierce, Founder and Director of the Institute for National Security Ethics and Leadership

12:45 – 2:00PM Panel 3: Military Leadership and Character Development

Can the military model serve as a basis for the promises and perils of leadership cultivation and are the virtues we seek to cultivate in military leaders the same as those we should encourage in the rest of society?

2:15 -3:30PM Panel 4: The Dark Side of Leadership

Qualities that lead to high success in the corporate and political world often are the antithesis of ethical leadership qualities. Is this a distinction between the real and faux leader or are corporate and political virtues often vices?

3:45 -5:00PM Panel 5: Dilemmas in Corporate and Political Leadership

What are the distinctions in the character traits and duties of a business leader and a political leader? Are there times of national security that require a leader to act unethically and are personal

Contact Info:

Elisabeth Aulepp
fssevents@law.upenn.edu

failing relevant in assessing ethical leadership?

5:15 – 6:45 Keynote Address – Judge Sergio Moro, Brazil

Named as one of the most influential people in the world by Time and Fortune Magazines. Through his prosecution of corruption reaching the upper echelons of Brazil's business and political leadership, Moro has emerged as a central leader in the emergence of rule of law governance in Brazil.

Cocktail Reception to follow.

This program has been approved for 6.5 ethics CLE credits for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credit may be available in other jurisdictions as well. Attendees seeking CLE credit should bring separate payment in the amount of $260.00 ($130.00 public interest/non-profit attorneys) cash or check made payable to The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.

This symposium is only possible with the collaboration and support of the following partners:

CERL / Provost's Office / Wharton / Villanova / Penn Law / LAS-SAS

ADVANCED REGISTRATION ON THIS SITE IS REQUIRED.

There is no fee for Any University Students, Faculty, Staff or Public Interest Employees. Proper ID is Required.

All others are asked to pay a conference fee of $45 which includes breakfast, a boxed lunch and admission to the cocktail party with Judge Moro after the Keynote event. Please bring a check payable to the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.

Registration for this event is now closed.