THE SECOND ANNUAL LAMBDA LAW SYMPOSIUM

PRIORITIES IN THE LGBT RIGHTS MOVEMENT

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2015 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM | PENN LAW

Free Registration at lgbtrights.eventbrite.com

Lambda Law, Penn Law's lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) student organization, will host its second annual LGBT symposium, Priorities in the LGBT Rights Movement, on Thursday, February 19, 2015. The all-day event will focus on emerging problems and questions facing members of the LGBT community, including reparative therapy, HIV/AIDS and pre-exposure prophylaxis, the threat of religious exemptions to LGBT equality laws, and challenges facing transgender youth. James Esseks, Director of the ACLU's LGBT & HIV Project and longtime LGBT rights advocate, will deliver our keynote address.
