Symposium Honoring U.S. Supreme Court Associate Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg

Time: 3:00pm

Location: Golkin 100, Michael A. Fitts Auditorium

Penn Law Dean Ted Ruger will moderate a distinguished panel including Marcia Greenberger L'70, founder and co-president, National Women's Law Center; Dahlia Lithwick, Senior Editor, Slate Magazine and host of the podcast Amicus; Serena Mayeri, Professor of Law and History, University of Pennsylvania, The Hon. John Owens, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and The Hon. Jed S. Rakoff, Senior United States District Judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Panelists will discuss Justice Ginsburg's work as a trailblazer in equal rights for women and her jurisprudential impact. Justice Ginsburg will respond and take questions from current Penn Law students.

This event is open to current Penn Law students and faculty only. Only an @law or @pennlaw email address will be valid for registration. Seating is limited and will be allocated via a lottery to be held in mid-January.

Justice Ginsburg will take pre-selected questions from Penn Law students at the event. A competition will be held for the best questions, the top four will be selected by a faculty committee, and those students will have the opportunity to pose their question to Justice Ginsburg at the event. Students with winning questions are guaranteed a seat in Fitts for the symposium. Questions should be sent to Conferences@law.upenn.edu with 'Ginsburg Question' in the subject line. The deadline for entries is COB January 26.
