Time: 12:00pm - 5:00pm

Location: Golkin 100, Michael A. Fitts Auditorium

Please join the Penn Law Intellectual Property Group ("PIPG") for our 12th annual symposium!

Please join the Penn Law Intellectual Property Group ("PIPG") for our 12th annual symposium, "Streaming and Changing Media and its Impact on Copyright Law." The event will explore how streaming technology has changed and will continue to affect the landscape of copyright protection. The day will begin with a panel discussing the transformation of the video industry. Following this will be a panel discussing the impact of streaming on the music industry, with an emphasis on the recently-passed Music Modernization Act. The final panel will present a forward-looking perspective on how these changes will impact future technology, creative expression, and available copyright protection.

Students are able to attend for free.

This program has been approved for 4.0 substantive CLE credits for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credit may be available in other jurisdictions as well. Attendees seeking CLE credit should bring separate payment in the amount of $160.00 ($80.00 public interest/non-profit attorneys) cash or check made payable to The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.
