BLSA Sadie Alexander Conference: “Current Applications of the Fourteenth Amendment”

Time: 9:00am - 4:00pm

This year’s Sadie Conference will examine Fourteenth Amendment law from various angles - the history of this law, its application to various minorities, and recent Supreme Court cases in this space.

Keynote speaker: Cornell William Brooks, President & CEO of the NAACP

BLSA will examine the Fourteenth Amendment with an emphasis on the role that the amendment and the Equal Protection Clause in particular play in the black community. We will discuss issues ranging from law enforcement to affirmative action in light of Fisher v. University of Texas.

True to Dr. Alexander’s legacy and mission, this year’s conference will feature scintillating debates, informative judicial panels, continuing legal education credit, and, as always, a diverse and exciting forum to discuss the most important issues of social justice.

This program has been approved for 3.0 CLE credit hours (2.0 ethics and 1.0 substantive law) for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credit may be available in other jurisdictions as well. Attendees seeking CLE credit should bring separate payment in the amount of $60.00 ($30.00 public interest/non-profit attorneys) cash or check made payable to The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania. If you will not be attending all three credit hours, and are seeking CLE credit, the fee is $20.00 per credit hour ($10.00 public interest/non-profit attorneys).
