Panel 1: The History & Framing of the Chicago School

POST-CHICAGO DEVELOPMENTS IN ANTITRUST LAW (Antonio Cucinotta et al., eds., 2002), available at Biddle.

______, The Reckoning of Post-Chicago Antitrust, in POST-CHICAGO DEVELOPMENTS IN ANTITRUST LAW 1 (Antonio Cucinotta et al., eds., 2002), available at Biddle.

Daniel L. Rubinfeld, On the Foundations of Antitrust Law & Economics, in HOW THE CHICAGO SCHOOL

Panel 2: Monopoly Power

Panel 3: Merger Underenforcement

Jonathan B. Baker et al., Five Principles for Vertical Merger Enforcement Policy (Georgetown Law Faculty Publications, 2019), available here.

Ulrich Doraszelski et al., Ownership Concentration & Strategic Supply Reduction (CEPR Discussion Paper, Mar. 2014), available here.

______, Scale Economies & Synergies in Horizontal Merger Analysis (UC Berkeley, Center for Competition Policy Working Paper, Feb. 18, 2004), available here.

Jon Leibowitz, Building on the Muris & Pitofsky Years: Evolving Remedies from “Time-Outs” to Civil Penalties (Not the Third Rail of Antitrust), 80 Tul. L. Rev. 595 (2005), available here (PennKey required).

Panel 4: Antitrust & Patent Holdup

Colleen V. Chien & Mark A. Lemley, Patent Holdup, the ITC, & the Public Interest, 98 Cornell L. Rev. 1 (2012), available here.

Panel 5: Resetting Antitrust Presumptions

John Michael Grant, Antitrust Wars: A New (False) Hope? The Supreme Court’s Decision in Apple v. Pepper (June 5, 2019), available here.

Steven C. Salop, An Enquiry Meet for the Case: Decision Theory, Presumptions, & Evidentiary Burdens in Formulating Antitrust Legal Standards (Georgetown University Law Center, Nov. 6, 2017), available here.

