Philly Rising:

LAWYERING AND ORGANIZING FOR RACIAL AND ECONOMIC JUSTICE

Join us for this year's Sparer Symposium, titled "Philly Rising: Lawyering and Organizing for Racial and Economic Justice," featuring local academics, practitioners, and organizers mobilizing against systems of racial oppression and marginalization in Philadelphia. The symposium will take the form of moderated panels highlighting how Philly-based organizers and lawyers have responded to racial and economic injustices in housing, incarceration and policing, environmental racism, and education.

This symposium is free to attend with payment only needed if seeking CLE credit. Please register using the button below.

This program has been approved for 7.0 (4.0 substantive and 3.0 ethics)
