JLPA Symposium - Red Lines, Red Tape: Combatting the Housing Crisis & Ending Residential Segregation

JLPA Logo

Time: All Day

Location: Golkin 100, Michael A. Fitts Auditorium

Please join Penn Law's Journal of Law & Public Affairs for its annual symposium, entitled "Red Lines, Red Tape: Combatting the Housing Crisis & Ending Residential Segregation." This year's symposium is presented in partnership with Penn Law's Leo Model Foundation Government Service & Public Affairs Initiative & the Stuart Weitzman School of Design at the University of Pennsylvania.

This year's symposium will feature two keynote speakers as well as three panels discussing topics ranging from housing discrimination and affordable housing development to racial segregation in America's cities. At the conclusion of the symposium, JLPA invites you to join the Journal for a celebratory reception. The program for the symposium is laid out below.

Please note that this program has been approved for 4.0 ethics CLE credits for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credit may be available in other jurisdictions as well. Attendees seeking CLE credit should bring separate payment in the amount of $160.00 ($80.00 public interest/non-profit attorneys) cash or check made payable to The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.
