Artificial Intelligence, Intellectual Property, & Innovation

Time: 12:00pm - 5:00pm

Location: Levy Conference Room

Please join the Penn Law Intellectual Property Group for its 13th Annual Symposium on "AI, IP, & Innovation" on Thursday, March 19th, 2020. Given the rising prominence and capabilities of artificial intelligence technologies, the symposium is poised to respond to proposed legislation across the globe, from the US to the EU, from Singapore to Brazil. The dialogue will include discussion on global regulation on AI, how patentability of AI affects innovation, and the ability of AI to replace lawyers in the practice of law.

Lunch will be served; White Dog reception to follow. Please RSVP to <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/95238887075/>.

This program has been approved for 4.0 substantive CLE credits for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credit may be available in other jurisdictions as well. Attendees seeking CLE credit should bring separate payment in the amount of $160.00 ($80.00 public interest/non-profit attorneys) cash or check made payable to The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.
