

September 12, 2016

Institute for Law and Philosophy Speaker Series: Dr. Frederick Wilmot-Smith

Time: 4:30pm

Location: Faculty Lounge

Dr. Frederick Wilmot-Smith is a Fellow of All Souls College, in the University of Oxford. He will be presenting his paper "Distributing Justice."

Dr. Wilmot-Smith is interested in a number of issues concerning the philosophy of private law, including its intersection with ethics and epistemology. At the moment, his main project in this domain is a book on unjust enrichment. He is also interested in the theoretical commitments of a legal system, and their implications for topics such as legal aid.

More information can be found here.

Contact Info:

fssevents@law.upenn.edu