The UN Global Compact: Strengthening Business and Human Rights

Time: 12:00pm - 1:00pm

Location: Gittis 213, Kushner Classroom

A Critical Global Conversation with the UN Global Compact and an opportunity to learn more about career opportunities in the field of Business and Human Rights

The UN Global Compact is the world's largest corporate sustainability initiative which calls upon companies to align strategies and operations with universal principles on human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption, and take actions that advance societal goals. A strong rule of law is a determinant of long term business success. The UN Global Compact's governance framework's mandate adopted in 2005 is to "promote responsible business practices and UN values among the global business community and the UN System."

You are invited to a Critical Global Conversation with the UN Global Compact and an opportunity to learn more about career opportunities in the field of Business and Human Rights. Lunch will be served.

Ursula Wynhoven, Chief, Social Sustainability, Governance and Legal UN Global Compact, in conversation with Maura Douglas, ISHRF at Institute for Human Rights and Business, London. Moderated by Rangita de Silva de Alwis, Associate Dean of International Affairs.
