Dean's Distinguished Speaker Series: Macharia Kamau

Time: 5:00pm

Location: Silverman 240A

Macharia Kamau, Kenyan Ambassador to the United Nations and Special Envoy of the Secretary-General on El Niño and Climate, will present "Climate Change and Food Security: How Our Future Depends on the Sustainable Development Goals"

One year after the UN adopted the momentous Development Agenda, Ambassador Macharia Kamau, Kenyan Ambassador to the United Nations and Special Envoy of the Secretary-General on El Niño and Climate, will speak of the historic process leading to the adoption of the goals and the threats facing the achievement of the goals.

Ambassador Kamau served as the Co-Chair of the General Assembly Working Group on the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and was the co-facilitator of the 2030 Development Agenda. In May 2016 United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon appointed Ambassador Kamau and President Mary Robinson, former President of Ireland, as Special Envoy of the Secretary-General on El Niño and Climate
