

October 30, 2017

New Developments in Legal Reform in China with PKU Law Professor Shen Kui

Time: 12:00pm

Location: Silverman 245A

Professor Shen Kui of Peking University Law School is one of the leading scholars of administrative law, constitutional law, and human rights in China. At this dialogue, he will share his insights on the latest developments in China's legal reform.

Until recently, Professor Shen was also Vice Dean of Peking University Law School, and is currently Chair of the Human Rights Law Research Institution at Peking University Law School. Professor Shen joins Penn Law for 2017-18 academic year as a Fulbright visiting scholar.

Contact Info:

international@law.upenn.edu

Feedback