The Holt Lecture in International Law

Time: 4:30pm

Location: Golkin 100, Michael A. Fitts Auditorium

Revisiting the Ongoing Debate about Globalization

On the 10th anniversary of the Holt Lecture in International Law, we welcome Ernesto Zedillo, who served as President of Mexico from 1994 - 2000. Since the ending of his term as president, Zedillo has been a leading voice on globalization, especially its impact on relations between developed and developing nations. He is currently Director of the Center for the Study of Globalization at Yale University, and is a member of The Elders, an independent group of global leaders using their collective experience and influence for peace, justice and human rights worldwide.

Reception to follow in the Haaga Lounge.

This program has been approved for 1.0 substantive CLE credits for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credit may be available in other jurisdictions as well. Attendees seeking CLE credit should bring separate payment in the amount of $40.00 ($20.00 public interest/non-profit attorneys) cash or check made payable to The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.

Registration for this event is now closed.
