

January 24, 2018

Roe at 45: The Progression of Reproductive Rights in the United States

Time: 12:00pm

Location: Gittis 2

Please join Penn Law If/When/How: Lawyering for Reproductive Justice, ACS, JLASC, LALSA, JLASC and NLG in examining the state and legacy of reproductive justice 45 years (and two days) after the Supreme Court issued its decision in Roe v. Wade.

Our panel will discuss how restrictions on reproductive rights have evolved since Roe. Panelists will explain how such restrictions disproportionately limit access to reproductive healthcare for lower-income individuals and communities of color.

Among the panelists are: Professor Dorothy Roberts, Thomas Zemaitis (lead counsel for Planned Parenthood in Planned Parenthood v. Casey), Ravina Daphtary (Director of State Strategies at All Above All), Noel Leon L'14 (Counsel at the National Women's Law Center).

*Thai food will be served for guests who wish to join us!

Contact Info:

Noel Lee
leenoel@pennlaw.upenn.edu