What's Next With Net Neutrality?

Time: 4:30pm - 6:00pm

Location: Silverman 147

The January 4 release of the Federal Communications Commission's Restoring Internet Freedom Order marked the most recent turn of events in the longstanding and ever-changing debate over net neutrality. Come hear two leading experts explore what the agency's action means and what the future might hold for Internet policy.

The program will be followed by an informal reception.

Speakers:

Christopher Yoo

John H. Chestnut Professor of Law, Communication, and Computer & Information Science; Founding Director, Center for Technology, Innovation & Competition at the University of Pennsylvania Law School

Kevin Werbach
