The Owen J. Roberts Memorial Lecture

Time: 6:00pm

Location: National Constitution Center

The 2018 Roberts Lecture will be given by United States Supreme Court Associate Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg at the National Constitution Center in Philadelphia.

The Roberts Lectureship was established in 1957 to honor Owen J. Roberts, former Associate Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court and Dean of Penn Law School from 1948 through 1951. It is considered the foremost endowed lectureship at Penn Law and has hosted distinguished jurists and scholars including Felix Frankfurter, Antonin Scalia, William Hastie, Archibald Cox, Ronald Dworkin, John Rawls, Guido Calabresi, Kathleen Sullivan and Amartya Sen.

Registration for this event has closed. Penn Law Faculty, Staff, Students, and Alums are welcome to add their names to the waiting list here, should they choose. A link to a live stream video of the talk will be published soon.
