Critical Global Conversations Student Series: Brexit as a Symptom of a Shift in Culture

Time: 3:00pm - 4:15pm

Location: Tanenbaum 253, Rare Book Room

"It is a time to redefine British identity" - Saratu Kitchener LLM'19

Looking at several tensions before and after the referendum, Professors Michael Lobban and Andrea Tosato will engage in conversation about the cleavage in the U.K. between young and old, urban and rural, and other divides. At a time of uncertainty, this critical global conversation merges with the culture salons to debate on the political, economic, social, and cultural challenges that Brexit poses.
