

October 10, 2018

A Conversation between Anita Hill and Kimberlé Crenshaw. Sexual Harassment from Congressional Testimony to the #MeToo Movement.

Time: 5:00pm - 6:30pm

Location: Irvine Auditorium 34th and Spruce Philadelphia 19104

Irvine Auditorium

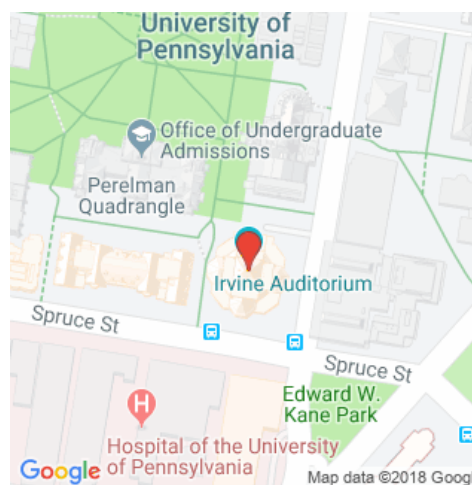

Held during the week of the 28th anniversary of the Clarence Thomas confirmation hearings, Sexual Harassment from Congressional Testimony to the #MeToo Movement brings together Anita Hill and Kimberlé Crenshaw for a discussion of the historical context for and current movements against sexual harassment. With Penn's own Dorothy Roberts acting as moderator, the event brings together three of the most distinguished gender, race and legal scholars.

Tickets are required for this event. A limited number of seats will be held for current Penn Law students, faculty, and staff.

This event is presented by the Alice Paul Center for Research on Gender, Sexuality and Women.

This event has been moved to Irvine Auditorium.

Registration for this event is now closed.

Contact Info:

conferences@law.upenn.edu

Feedback