Opportunity Zones and Inclusive Community Development, Hosted by John Legend

Time: 12:00pm - 1:00pm

Location: Golkin 100, Michael A. Fitts Auditorium

Please join award winning artist and activist John Legend, Enterprise Community Partners, the Penn Institute for Urban Research (Penn IUR), and Penn Law's Quattrone Center for the Fair Administration of Justice for a panel discussion exploring the new Opportunity Zone tax incentive established by Congress in the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017.

Speakers will discuss the opportunities and challenges presented by Opportunity Zones. They will explore systems, policies, and procedures to encourage equitable and inclusive development that protects against displacement and connects all residents to opportunity in terms of affordable housing, quality jobs, health and wellness access, and fair community justice programs. Speakers include John Legend and Terri Ludwig, CEO, Enterprise Community Partners, Inc. Additional speakers to be announced.

This event is open to the public and current University of Pennsylvania Faculty, Staff, Students, Alumni, Penn Law Alumni and current University of Pennsylvania Law School full time Faculty, Staff, and Students (including LLM and Master in Law degree candidates).

Doors will open at 11:40 am and we will close the doors and the event will commence promptly at 12:00 pm. You will need to show ID (Penn ID for Penn Community) when you sign in at the event.

Registration is required.
