18th Annual Penn APALSA Conference: Forging Ahead: Confronting Today's Global Challenges

Location: University of Pennsylvania Law School (3501 Sansom Street)

Come join APALSA for its 18th Annual Conference!

The 18th Annual Penn APALSA Conference, titled Forging Ahead: Confronting Today's Global Challenges, will focus on how Asian Americans bring about social change in the world. Our three panels will touch upon topics including immigration, trade war, and national security. Mr. Dale Minami, lawyer and civil rights activist who overturned the conviction of Fred Korematsu, will deliver the keynote speech.

Due to the generous support of the law school and the legal community, the conference is FREE for all attendees. Conference attendees who sign-in at the Registration Desk before the end of the first panel also receive FREE entry to the after-party at Rumor (located at 1500 Sansom St. Philadelphia, PA 19102). All others must pay a $25 entry fee for the after-party.
