Judge Amy Coney Barrett: Originalism: Why We Should Live with Our Dead Constitution

On Monday, February 25, at noon, please join the Penn Law Federalist Society in welcoming Judge Amy Coney Barrett of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. A graduate of Notre Dame Law School, Judge Barrett clerked for Judge Silberman (D.C. Cir.) and Justice Scalia. Since 2002, Judge Barret has taught at the Notre Dame Law School, where she focuses on federal courts, constitutional law, and statutory interpretation. Judge Barrett will speak on the value of originalism as a method of constitutional interpretation. The event will take place in Fitts Auditorium. Lunch will be served, and a Kosher/vegetarian option will be available.

Please RSVP here: https://upenn.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_2abbKYRcNQu6LeR

(Note, RSVPs are required, and taken on a first-come, first-served basis. You must bring a valid ID with you. Penn ID is fine for Penn students.)

*This program has been approved for 1.0 substantive CLE credits for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credit may be available in other jurisdictions as well.
