PI WEEK - Intersectionality and the Law

Time: 12:00pm - 1:30pm EDT

Location: Golkin 100, Michael A. Fitts Auditorium

Student Group Sponsors: PLWA, LALSA, BLSA, CRLP, Penn Law Feminists

Penn Law Women's Association, Black Law Students Association, Latinx Law Students Association, Civil Rights Law Project, and Penn Law Feminists are hosting an event on "Intersectionality and the Law". The discussion will focus on the extent to which the current state of law accommodates or limits an intersectional approach to advocacy, how public interest lawyers can work around current limitations of the law to advocate for clients experiencing intersectional discrimination, and the extent to which progressive movements within the legal community have been shaped by the voices of the majority.

Panelists:

Professor Dorothy Roberts, George A. Weiss University Professor of Law and Sociology and the Raymond Pace and Sadie Tanner Mossell Alexander Professor of Civil Rights, Penn Law School

Professor Kimberle Crenshaw, Isidor and Seville Sulzbacher Professor of Law at Columbia Law School and Distinguished Professor of Law at UCLA Law School

Lunch will be available to those who RSVP by October 14th.

This program has been approved for 1.5 ethics CLE credits for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credit may
