Selected Bibliography for:

PENN PROGRAM ON DOCUMENTARIES & THE LAW

Public Interest Week - Screening of “Cooked: Survival by Zip Code”

Thursday, October 24, 2019

Regina Austin, From EJ (Environmental Justice) to CJ (Climate Justice): The Lessons of Iconic Katrina, Risk Management & Decision Processes Center, The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania (last viewed Oct. 15, 2019), available here.

Christopher Bacon et al., Introduction to Empowered Partnerships: Community-Based Participatory Action Research for Environmental Justice, 6 ENVTL. JUST. 1 (2013), available here.

Daniel Aldana Cohen, Climate Justice & the Right to the City, Kleinman Center for Energy Policy, Penn Institute for Urban Research (2018), available here.

_____ , A Successful Climate Plan Must Also Tackle the Housing Crisis, GUARDIAN (Oct. 1, 2019), available here.

_____ , The Urban Green Wars: Struggling for Working-Class Control of Cities is Crucial to Bringing Down Carbon Emissions, JACOBIN (Dec. 11, 2015), available here.

Guerra Garcia, “Free the Land”: A Call for Local Governments to Address Climate-Induced Food Insecurity in Environmental Justice Communities, 41 WM. MITCHELL L. REV. 572 (2015), available here.

Audrea Lim, True Climate Justice Puts Communities of Color First: Black and Brown Communities Have Long Borne the Brunt of Our Addiction to Fossil Fuels—And Now They are Leading the Fight for a Post-Carbon Economy, NATION (May 22, 2017), available here.

