

November 4, 2019

Trademark Hot Topics Discussion

Time: 3:00pm - 4:00pm

Location: T145

Come hear an experienced trademark practitioner discuss recent developments in trademark law. Katie McCarthy of King and Spalding will discuss recent courts of appeal and district court trademark decisions of note, what it takes to recover monetary relief in Lanham Act cases, an overview of parody cases, and cases seeking to hold online platforms liable for items sold in their stores. Katie is also happy to meet after the presentation to discuss careers in intellectual property and the benefits of getting involved in IP associations like the New York Intellectual Property Law Association.

Free

Contact Info:

Louis Lesser, llesser@pennlaw.upenn.edu