The Future of Title VII and LGBTQ+ Discrimination

Time: 12:00pm - 1:00pm

Location: Silverman 245A

Please join Penn Law Lambda on Thursday, November 14, for a lunch panel on the future of LGBTQ+ and gender discrimination protections under Title VII, in light of the three cases argued before the Supreme Court this term. Professors Mayeri and Wolff will be partaking in the discussion, as well as Professor Katie Eyer from Rutgers Law. Learn about the history of efforts to combat discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity, as well as the future direction of this advocacy. All students are welcome to attend and lunch will be provided.
