A Century after Thind: South Asians in the Legal Profession

Time: 10:00am - 6:00pm
Location: 3501 Sansom St, Philadelphia, PA 19104

One century after the Supreme Court ruled that South Asians were ineligible for United States citizenship in United States v. Bhagat Singh Thind, how far have South Asians come in the legal institution, and more importantly, how far do we have left to go? Join Penn Law’s South Asian Law Students Association and a host of invited speakers and guests as we explore this idea at the historic first South Asian Law Student Association conference hosted by a law school.

This program has been approved for 4.0 (3.0 substantive and 1.0 ethics) total CLE credits for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credit may be available in other jurisdictions as well. Attendees seeking CLE credit should bring separate payment in the amount of $160.00 ($80.00 public interest/non-profit attorneys) cash or check made payable to The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.
