

February 12, 2020

CTIC Law & Technology Scholarship Colloquium: Jennifer Rothman

Time: 4:30pm

Location: Faculty Lounge

Professor Jennifer Rothman will present her paper "The First Amendment and the Right(s) of Publicity."

This event is open to the Law & Technology Scholarship Colloquium and all Penn Law Faculty.

Jennifer E. Rothman is Professor of Law and the Joseph Scott Fellow at Loyola Law School, Los Angeles. She is an elected member of the American Law Institute and an affiliated fellow at the Yale Information Society Project at Yale Law School.

Professor Rothman is nationally recognized for her scholarship in the intellectual property and constitutional law fields, and is the leading expert on the right of publicity.

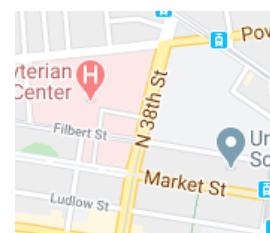

Rothman received her A.B. from Princeton University where she received the Asher Hinds Book Prize and the Grace May Tilton Prize. Rothman received an M.F.A. in film production from the University of Southern California's School of Cinematic Arts, where she directed an award-winning documentary.

Rothman received her J.D. from UCLA, where she graduated first in her class and won the Jerry Pacht Memorial Constitutional Law Award for her scholarship in that field. Rothman served as law clerk to the Honorable Marsha S. Berzon of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in San Francisco, and then practiced as an entertainment and intellectual property litigator in Los Angeles at Irell & Manella.

39°57'1...

View larger map

Contact Info:

Carlyn Miller
ctic@law.upenn.edu