Wharton Restructuring and Distressed Investing Club's 2020 Wharton Restructuring and Distressed Investing Conference has been approved for 3.0 CLE credits. Please note the following:

1. The following CLE language must be placed on all of your publicity and invites, and your publicity must be uploaded to the CLE calendar.

This program has been approved for 3.0 substantive CLE credits for Pennsylvania lawyers. New York CLE is pending, and CLE credit may be available in other jurisdictions as well. Attendees seeking CLE credit should bring separate payment in the amount of $160.00 ($80.00 public interest/non-profit attorneys) cash or check made payable to The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania. Financial aid is available for attorneys who would be unable to attend due to cost considerations. Please contact clehelp@law.upenn.edu to request a financial aid fee waiver

We are pleased to invite you to the 16th Annual Wharton Restructuring and Distressed Investing Conference, which will be held on Friday, February 21, 2020 at the Plaza Hotel in New York City.

The Wharton School hosts the largest restructuring and distressed investing-focused school-run conference in the United States. We are proud to serve as an important forum for industry practitioners, academics, and students to gather and exchange ideas.

This year's conference offers a unique opportunity to hear from a distinguished gathering of keynote speakers and panelists in their discussion of the current economic climate and issues of debt, investing, and restructuring across the globe.
