

September 30, 2020

Puerto Rico in Crisis: Then, Now, and Looking Ahead

Time: 4:00pm - 5:00pm

Location: Virtual event

The University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School and the Institute for Law and Economics present a virtual panel discussion with policy experts on the restructuring and priorities for Puerto Rico's recovery with:

Eric Platt (Moderator) - US Markets Editor, Financial Times

David Skeel - S. Samuel Arshat Professor of Corporate Law, University of Pennsylvania Law School

Rosanna Torres - Director, Washington DC Office, Center for a New Economy

Antonio Weiss - Senior Fellow, Mossaver-Rahmani Center for Business and Government, Kennedy School, Harvard University

Topics to be discussed include PROMESA, the restructuring status, disaster recovery and the impact of both national and local elections on Puerto Rico's future.

Registration is required for this webinar:

https://pennlaw.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_r_TmFr2fRRi5DT-IKEESzg

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.

Contact Info:

Dori Pavel
Conferences and Events
Conferences@law.upenn.edu