About this Event

The Annual APALSA Conference is the largest student organization-led conference at Penn Law, and we welcomed around 150 attendees from various law schools to our conference last year. The 2021 Conference will focus on the novel challenges Asian Americans are facing in the law and politics as we transcend into the new "20s". Co-hosted virtually with ALR, a premier journal devoted to addressing legal developments in Asia, the program will highlight a colorful assortment of perspectives shared by seasoned legal professionals in their varying career trajectories.

Due to the generous support of the law school and the legal community, the conference is FREE for all attendees.

This program has been approved for 3.5 CLE credits (2.5 Ethics, 1.0 Substantive) for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credit may be available in other jurisdictions as well. Attendees seeking CLE credit must register for CLE credit and make a payment via the online CLE registration link (https://upenn.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV\_cG7GN9a1PWF6Q3j) in the amount of $140.00 ($70.00 public interest/non-profit attorneys). In order to receive the appropriate amount of credit, passcodes provided throughout the program must be noted in your evaluation form.

Penn Law Alumni receive CLE credits free through The W.P. Carey Foundation's generous commitment to Lifelong Learning.
