

June 15, 2021

Revisiting Reform: Taking Stock One Year Later

Time: 11:30am - 1:00pm

Last year, the murder of George Floyd prompted a national dialogue on reforming policing – including a panel discussion that launched this Achieving Racial Justice Series. In this year's conversation, our panelists will discuss what reform efforts have successfully taken place, and identify additional priorities for progress.

RSVP Here: <https://pennlaw.cvent.com/d/jmq7wp>

Panelists:

Anjelica Hendricks, Policy Analyst, Philadelphia Police Advisory Commission
Damon Hewitt L'00, President and Executive Director, Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law
Lisa Judge, Inspector General, City of Seattle

Moderator:

John Hollway, Executive Director, Quattrone Center for the Fair Administration of Justice

Contact Info:

Office of Equity & Inclusion
inclusion@law.upenn.edu