

Law School Events

December 8, 2021

The Congressional Bureaucracy

8:30pm - 9:30pm EST

Contact Info:

Neysun Mahboubi
neysun.mahboubi@sas.upenn.edu

This “audio drop-in” discussion is organized by Neysun Mahboubi, Research Scholar at Penn’s Center for the Study of Contemporary China, Lecturer in Law at Penn Law, and Research

It is part of the Law and Governance series on Clubhouse, featuring audio-only discussions of new scholarship on public law.

The discussion on December 8 will focus on “The Congressional Bureaucracy,” the new article by Jesse Cross (UofSC School of Law) and Abbe Gluck (Yale Law School) published in the University of Pennsylvania Law Review. In addition to Prof. Cross and Prof. Gluck, discussants will include Chris Walker (Ohio State Moritz Law), Bridget Dooling (GW Regulatory Studies Center), Richard Murphy (Texas Tech School of Law), and Dan

The Clubhouse listing can be found at <https://www.clubhouse.com/event/m2nkDvnq>.

Anyone with a Clubhouse account can easily listen in or participate in the conversation by opening the app on their phone. If you don't yet have a Clubhouse account, you can use this link to create one on your iPhone or Android device: <https://www.clubhouse.com/join/law-governance/slNbC3BC/m2nkDvnq>.

This discussion is co-sponsored by the Penn Program on Regulation. Click here to view all upcoming Penn Program on Regulation events.

View All Upcoming Events

December 2021

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
28	29	30	1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8	9	10	11
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
19	20	21	22	23	24
26	27	28	29	30	31

