

Law School Events

October 29, 2021

The Polish Challenge to the Future of the European Union

12:00pm - 1:00pm EDT

Contact Info:

Neysun Mahboubi
neysun.mahboubi@sas.upenn.edu

This “audio drop-in” discussion is organized by Neysun Mahboubi, Research Scholar at Penn’s Center for the Study of Contemporary China, Lecturer in Law at Penn Law, and Research Affiliate of the Penn

The discussion will be held on the Clubhouse Law & Government channel, and will focus on the implications of the Polish Constitutional Tribunal's recent ruling which challenges the basic idea that all member countries have to apply EU law.

Discussants include Kim Lane Scheppele (Princeton), Bojan Bugarič (Sheffield), Fernanda Nicola (American WCL), Laurent Pech (Middlesex), Joana Mendes (Luxembourg), and Neysun Mahboubi (Penn). The Clubhouse event listing can be found at: <https://clublink.to/event/PGKvBqpP>.

Anyone with a Clubhouse account can easily listen in or participate in the conversation by opening the app on their phone. If you don't yet have a Clubhouse account, you can use this link to create one on your iPhone or

