Honorary Fellow-in-Residence Keynote Address

5:30pm - 6:30pm EDT
Silverman 245A, Bernard Segal Moot Court Room

Our Honorary Fellow-in-Residence Damon Hewitt L’00 serves as President and Executive Director of the Lawyers’ Committee for Civil Rights Under Law. Hewitt has more than 20 years of civil rights leadership roles in the nonprofit, philanthropic, and public sectors. He will be joined in conversation by Lou Rulli, Practice Professor of Law, Director of Civil Practice Clinic & Legislative Clinic, Penn Carey Law.

Together they will interrogate narratives of wealth, discuss how policies around issues such as voting, housing, and farmer debt relief impact historically marginalized communities, and reaffirm what it means to be a lawyer prepared to fight for economic justice at a time of widening inequity. You do not want to miss this conversation!
