A NEW WORK ON A NEW PLAN

THE ONLY COMPLETE KEY TO THE United States Supreme Court Reports

By WM. HEPBURN RUSSELL and WM. BEVERLY WINSLOW, of the New York Bar

These volumes alone are worth more to active practitioners than all other Supreme Court digests combined.

They present, in alphabetical arrangement, from A to P inclusive, the Official Syllabus of every case decided by the Supreme Court of the United States up to Volume 175 U. S. Therefore these volumes are in themselves a complete digest of nearly every question heretofore determined by the Supreme Court.

More than this, the Work as a whole is virtually a condensed set of the official reports with all subsequent citations to each point shown at a glance. It is invaluable to students and lawyers having small libraries.

It is invaluable to practitioners in the State as well as in the Federal Courts.

It is a brief-maker that can be relied upon.

It gathers all related Federal authorities in chronological order, and a lawyer can, with its aid, prepare in an hour a brief that without it would require days of arduous effort.

It determines definitely the present value, as an authority, of every case heretofore decided by the Supreme Court, and places at the finger ends of the busy lawyer all the law heretofore enunciated by our greatest judicial tribunal.

It is not an illy digested mass of references to State decisions cited to mere dictums of the Supreme Court, but is a systematic and orderly presentation of the cases, alphabetically arranged, with the official syllabus of each case taken from the official reports and appropriately side-headed; and all subsequent cases to any given syllabus point are cited in connection therewith, so as to be the subject of instant reference.

It is a practical book for practical lawyers.

In a letter, speaking of the two volumes already issued, United States Circuit Judge Wm. R. Day, of Canton, Ohio, formerly Secretary of State, writes:

"I am glad to note that the entire work may be looked for in the near future. It is sure to be one of the greatest aids in existence to the Federal practitioner and judge.

"Those wishing to know the law as declared by the Supreme Court cannot afford to be without the work."

The work will be completed in three large volumes of about 1650 pages each, covering the cases, with an Index Digest by subjects in a separate volume. The third volume will be issued in January, 1902. The Index-Digest volume will promptly follow.
