

in the book. These developments are shown by the addition of forty-four new cases in the present edition, but of course a book intended for general use can hardly be expected to include the local statutory modifications. The fact that so many of the topics of the book have been subject to material statutory alterations in almost all of the states makes the preparation of a general casebook extremely difficult, and detracts somewhat from its practical utility.

The cases in the volume have been carefully selected, the book itself has been kept within reasonable limits, and the footnotes are helpful without being overburdened with material. The many references to notes and articles in Law Reviews and other legal periodicals are a novel feature, of much value for a casebook intended for use in a law school whose library includes complete files of those publications.

R. D.

PRINCIPLES OF EQUITY. By A. M. Wilshere, M. A., LL.B. Sweet & Maxwell, Ltd., London, 1920, pp. 584.

The clear and orderly arrangement of this volume will delight the reader or student who seeks always to fit each principle of law into a logical place. The author takes up the maxims of equity, trusts, partnerships, and many kindred subjects, stating the principles of the law concerning them in concise form, and according to an admirable scheme of construction which he works out in brief in the Epitome. In this Epitome, occupying the last seventy-four pages of the book, he summarizes all that has gone before.

The value of the book to American students is somewhat lessened by the facts that the references are solely to English cases, and that many portions of the book are based almost wholly on English Statutes.

OTHER BOOKS RECEIVED

TAFT PAPERS ON THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS. (Speeches and Letters of Ex-President William Howard Taft). Edited by Theodore Marburg, and Horace E. Flack. The Macmillan Co., 1920, pp. 340.

THE PROJECT OF A PERMANENT COURT OF INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE AND RESOLUTIONS OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE OF JURISTS. Report and Commentary by James Brown Scott. Published by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, 1920, pp. 235. (To be reviewed in next issue).

LABOR'S CRISIS (An employer's view of Labor Problems). By Sigmund Mendelsohn. The Macmillan Co., 1920, pp. 171.

HUGHES ON ADMIRALTY (2nd edition). By Robert M. Hughes. West Publishing Co., 1920, pp. 572.

EARLY EFFECTS OF THE WAR UPON THE FINANCE, COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY OF PERU. By Leo S. Rowe, (formerly Professor of Political Science, University of Pennsylvania). Published by Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, 1920, pp. 60.

OUTLINES OF HISTORICAL JURISPRUDENCE, (Volume I—Introduction; Tribal Law). By Sir Paul Vinogradoff, F. B. A. Oxford University Press, 1920, pp. 428. (To be reviewed in next issue).

MADISON'S JOURNAL OF THE DEBATES IN THE FEDERAL CONVENTION OF 1789. Edited by Gaillard Hunt and James Brown Scott. Published by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. Oxford University Press, 1920, pp. xcvi, 731.

THE STUDY OF ROMAN LAW TODAY. By F. deZulueta, D. C. L. Oxford University Press, 1920, pp. 25.

FRESH LIGHT ON ROMAN BUREAUCRACY. By H. Stuart Jones, M. A. Oxford University Press, 1920, pp. 39.

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—A STUDY IN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION. By James Brown Scott, A. M., J. U. D., LL.D. Published by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. Oxford University Press, 1920, pp. xix, 605. (To be reviewed in next issue).

TALES OUT OF COURT. By Frederick Trevor Hill. Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1920, pp. 251.

GOMPERS-ALLEN DEBATE (May 28, 1920). Published by E. P. Dutton & Co., 1920, pp. 105.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH. By Zechariah Chafee, Jr., Professor of Law, Harvard University. Harcourt, Brace and Howe, 1920, pp. 431. (To be reviewed in next issue).

REPORT OF THE 29TH CONFERENCE OF THE INTERNATIONAL LAW ASSOCIATION. (May 27-31, 1920, Portsmouth, England.) Published by Sweet and Maxwell, Ltd., London, 1920, pp. 480.

MECHANICS' LIEN LAWS IN CANADA. By William Bernard Wallace, LL.B. Canada Law Book Co., Toronto, 1920, pp. 626.

LAW OF BANKRUPTCY IN CANADA. By J. A. C. Cameron, K.C. Canada Law Book Co., Toronto, 1920, pp. 148.

