

University of Pennsylvania Law Review

And American Law Register

FOUNDED 1852

Published Monthly, November to June, by the University of Pennsylvania Law School,

$4.50 PER ANNUM; FOREIGN, $5.00; SINGLE COPIES, 60 CENTS.

BOARD OF EDITORS

W. JAMES MACINTOSH, Editor-in-Chief
HAROLD C. ROBERTS, Note Editor
JOSEPH C. HENRY, Case Editor
WINDSOR F. COUSINS, Book Review Editor
THOS. B. K. RINGE, Business Manager
B. M. SNOVER, Treasurer

Associate Editors

HENRY W. BALKA	ROBERT D. GERSTENLAUER
BYRON A. BRAND	JOHN F. E. HIPPEL
LUCIEN B. CARPENTER	PAUL L. IVES
JOSEPH S. CLARK, Jr.	LOUISE F. MCCARTHY
JAMES S. CLIFFORD, Jr.	HENRY L. RUSSELL

Student Contributors

PHILIP W. AMRAM	C. WILLIAM KRAFT, Jr.
DAVID J. DEAN	THOMAS P. MIKELL
LAURENCE H. ELDRIDGE	JOHN C. NOONAN
FRANK J. GILLIS	CHARLES L. SUTTON
JOSEPH F. GILLIS, Jr.	JOHN H. WHARTON
JOHN HARPER	OWEN J. WISTER

CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE

ROBERT VON MOSCHZISER, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

GEORGE WHARTON PEPPER, United States Senator from Pennsylvania.

JNO. C. KNOX, Justice of United States Federal Circuit Court, New York City. Judge Knox spent several years as Assistant United States Attorney in Southern New York District and during the World War was head of the Criminal Department in this district. As special assistant to the Attorney General of the United States he aided in the prosecution of Mann Act blackmailers in various parts of the country.

AMOS E. TAYLOR, A. B. Gettysburg, 1915; M. A. Chicago, 1920; Ph. D. University of Pennsylvania, 1924. Dr. Taylor studied at the Sorbonne, Paris, during the Peace Conference. His new work on "The Economic Blockade—a New Factor in International Relations" will be published early in 1926.