

Oral Legal History Project
University of Pennsylvania Law School
Index of Video Interview
Allen D. Black, Law 66'
By Isaac E. Dweck, Law 01'
November 22, 2000

Interview Location: Fine, Kaplan & Black, 1845 Walnut St.
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Tape Length: 01.00 Hour

- 0.00.10 Interviewer Introduction
- 0.00.45 Place and Year of Birth
- 0.03.07 Experiences in high school
- 0.05.01 Recalling Brown v. Board of Education
- 0.07.59 Decision to attend Princeton University
- 0.11.58 Recollections on the assassination of John F. Kennedy
- 0.14.27 On his decision to apply to law schools and in particular, Penn
- 0.16.35 Recollections of One-L Year
- 0.21.37 On the social zeitgeist of the sixties
- 0.23.01 The decision to clerk, thoughts on Judge Wisdom and Louisiana in general
- 0.29.51 Why he decided to work for the Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division
- 0.32.18 Thoughts on the assassination of Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr.
- 0.33.40 Decision to become a JAG officer with the Navy
- 0.38.51 How he came to teach at North Dakota after JAG service

- 0.45.37 The move back to Philadelphia and into complex commercial litigation
- 0.47.38 The founding of Fine, Kaplan & Black
- 0.52.55 Responsibilities as Chairman of the Bucks County Airport Authority
- 0.53.58 Experiences with the ALI
- 0.58.03 Thoughts on the current presidential/constitutional crisis regarding the 2000 presidential election
- 1.00.0 End.