

INDEX TO ANDRE DENNIS INTERVIEW TAPE

TAPE COUNTER (hours:minutes:seconds)	SUBJECT
0:00:37	Introduction
0:01:27	Childhood
0:01:35	Born in England
0:01:50	Grew up in Philadelphia
0:02:10	Leaving England
0:02:20	Family
0:03:07	Childhood hobbies & jobs
0:03:29	First job
0:04:07	Mentors
0:04:40	College
0:05:17	Political Science Major
0:05:40	Cheyney University's Mission to produce leaders
0:06:22	Family's reaction to Dennis's decision to go to college
0:06:38	Activities involved in during college
0:07:30	Protest at Inquirer Building – Most vivid memory from college
0:08:21	Remembering where Dennis was during the JFK shooting
0:09:34	Cheyney's influence on Dennis
0:10:11	Law School
0:10:54	Decision to go to Howard University School of Law
0:12:36	Lawyers as parasites or social engineers; Dean Houston
0:13:07	Role lawyers should play in solving social problems through the legal system
0:13:40	Remembering what it was like as a First Year
0:14:34	Demographic of law school class
0:15:08	Admissions process
0:15:47	Professor with greatest influence
0:16:39	Most and least favorite classes
0:17:23	Winning the American Jurisprudence Award
0:17:50	What Dennis liked most about law school
0:18:26	Living in another city for the first time
0:19:06	How law school prepared Dennis for practice
0:19:39	Life After Law School
0:19:40	Choosing Stradley, Ronin, Stevens & Young
0:21:30	First Black Employee of Stradley
0:22:10	The concept of "twoness"
0:23:17	First trial experience
0:24:00	Practicing criminal law
0:25:50	MOVE litigation – Dennis's most memorable case – how he got involved, background of case, outcome of case
0:35:40	Implications of MOVE case
0:37:48	MOVE case influenced Dennis to develop civil rights practice group within Stradley
0:39:50	Tai Kwan Cureton v. NCAA case – procedural & substantive history and implications of case
0:43:35	United States v. Brown University, et al. case – background and outcome of case
0:49:19	Civil Rights Movement needs rejuvenation
0:52:51	Lost momentum because people like to believe we have achieved a colorblind society
0:56:00	What lawyers can do to protect civil rights
0:57:41	Hiring practices of law firms in Philadelphia
1:00:02	Looking at talent when hiring from law schools
1:01:11	Advice to 3 rd Year Law Students
1:03:59	Lawyers Involvement in Community Organizations
1:06:01	END