

Videotape Index

---

- 0:0      Place Born and Raised
Philadelphia
- 0:44      Parent's Occupations
Father was a butcher and mother was a housewife
- 1:0      Father decides to go to law school
This exerted strong influence on her desire to go to law school
- 2:15      College Years
- 2:26      Penn Law School
- 2:45      Admissions Process
Similar to today's process
- 3:20      Atmosphere at Penn Law during the 70s
People interested in Law for Social change
Students worked hard and were academically ambitious
- 4:56      Beginning of Interest in Class Actions
Felt that the class action device equalized the power between little guy and big guy
- 5:57      David Berger
First met him through a talk David Berger gave at Penn Law School
- 6:25      Job Search
Her confidence helped her to land the job
- 7:06      First Job
At Goodis Greenfield
- 7:16      Beginning to work with David Berger
After 1 year at Goodis Greenfield, Ms. Savett switched over to work with
David Berger
- 7:45      Early Training
Hands on training with David
- 8:06      Magic Marker Case
A securities litigation case that helped launch her career

- 9:57      Training for new associates currently
Training continues to be hands-on and personal
- 10:30      Case against the Franklin Mint
- 13:03      Difficult cases stand out in her mind
- 13:36      Experience as a women in the field
Have run into some prejudices, but not many
- 14:59      Memorable Cases are not easily defined
- 17:12      Interested in cases with accounting irregularities
- 17:30      Creative methods to hide problems in business
- 18:35      The Sotheby's/Christie's settlement
Retained by a shareholder b/c of the significant decrease in stock after revelation of the conspiracy. Case was memorable because of the foray into the art world, but it was not a hard fought case
- 20:45      Settlement is always a good idea
- 20:58      In re Cascade
A very memorable and significant securities case. The shareholders sued the analyst side of a brokerage house.
- 26:00      Three largest settlements for Sherrie Savett
Sotheby's, Waste Management, Rite Aid
- 27:47      Opinion on Mediation
Very favorable. Finds that mediation works really well
- 29:07      Effect of the new economy on securities litigation
The greatest change is expanded access to information
- 29:42      Effect of the PSLRA
Pleading standards are much harder, but if you survive motion to dismiss chances are good for the plaintiff. The stakes go up.
- 30:39      Ethical Dilemmas
Don't come across them too often. Feels the class action device – in general – is the best way to meet the plaintiff's needs.

- 31:12      Lecturing
At Stanford, for a one time event. A class at Penn several years ago.
- 31:49      Experience in the classroom
Good to be with bright motivated students
- 32:15      Litigation's hostile environment
The courtroom is much more vicious than the classroom
- 33:12      Role of personalities in litigation
- 33:14      Role of judges in litigation
- 33:48      Future career on the bench
It would be great, but it wouldn't be a greater challenge than being an advocate
- 34:19      No desire to enter into academia
- 35:19      Balancing interests of family and career
- 37:03      Changes in the profession's attitude towards women in the workplace
- 37:35      Balance is important to Savett
- 38:37      How outside interests and involvements affect work as a lawyer
Helps her understand people and even brings clients her way.
- 40:19      Advantages of being at a smaller firm
- 41:26      Approach towards new or young associates