

Today is June 10, 2015 Day Week Month All Events

Add Event

April 9, 2015

Back

Search Calendar

Contact Info:

Alexandra Theobald:
Atheo@law.upenn.edu
Ziwei Xiao: zix@law.upenn.edu

Corruption and International Arbitration

Time: 12:00pm - 1:15pm

Location: Silverman 240B

The Penn Law International Arbitration Association together with the International Council for Commercial Arbitration (Young ICCA) is proud to host a panel discussion on current topics in Corruption and International Arbitration. The event will take place on April 9th, from 12:00pm - 1:15pm in S240B. Lunch will be provided.

RSVP's are appreciated for catering purposes:

- Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/events/1543664052563768/>
- or Online <http://goo.gl/forms/j3g2r7cEf1>

Topics will include:

- I. the phenomenon of corruption in foreign investment and attempts at its control;
- II. the key areas of corruption decision-making and the role of the arbitral tribunal
- III. corruption as a defense in contract disputes in arbitration

Speakers:

Dana MacGrath - Counsel at Sidley Austin LLP
Tom Walsh - Special Counsel at Sullivan & Cromwell LLP
Viren Mascarenhas - Associate at King & Spalding LLP

Moderator:

Damien Nyer - Associate at White & Case LLP, Chair of Young ICCA

Add to my calendar

Edit this event