Earthquakes, Nuclear Meltdowns, and Chemical Spills: Legal Responses to Disasters in the US and Asia

AN INAUGURAL CONFERENCE of the UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA LAW SCHOOL’S CENTER FOR ASIAN LAW

Presented by the Center for Asian Law, this groundbreaking conference will bridge the worlds of scholarship and policy by bringing together legal academics, activists, policymakers, and lawyers to discuss the Bhopal toxic chemical disaster, the Sichuan earthquake, and the Fukushima earthquake, tsunami, and nuclear meltdown.

Kenneth R. Feinberg, called “Mr. Fairness” by The Wall Street Journal, served as Special Master of the Federal September 11th Victim Compensation Fund of 2001. The preeminent mediator in the United States, Mr. Feinberg has acted as Administrator of the Gulf Coast Claims Facility (which processed compensation claims arising out of the Gulf of Mexico oil spill in 2010), Administrator of the Hokey Spirit Memorial Fund (following the killings of 32 students and faculty on the Virginia Tech Campus in 2007), Special Master in the Federal Agent Orange Product Liability litigation, and has resolved dozens of additional high-profile disputes. Mr. Feinberg has taught Mass Torts, Evidence, and Criminal Law at the University of Pennsylvania Law School, Columbia Law School, New York University School of Law, Harvard Law School, Georgetown University Law Center and the University of Virginia Law School. He is the author of What is Life Worth? and Who Gets What.

This program has been approved for 1.5 substantive CLE credits for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credit may be available in other jurisdictions as well. Attendees seeking CLE credit should bring separate payment in the amount of $40 ($20 public interest/non-profit attorney/legal aid) check or cash made payable to The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.

This event is open to the Penn Community. Please RSVP: http://bit.ly/1P7LxgQ
