What is Fair and Equal Treatment?

Time: 4:30pm - 6:00pm

Location: Gittis 213, Kushner Classroom

Optimizing Government Project

A panel discussion featuring Samuel Freeman (Penn Philosophy), Nancy Hirschmann (Penn Political Science), and Seth Kreimer (Penn Law) will focus on current legal and moral norms about fairness and equal protection as they relate to the use of machine learning in government. The workshop is the second in a series of four taking place throughout the fall, dedicated to exploring policy and technical challenges to using artificial intelligence in government.

The Optimizing Government Project is a Fels Policy Research Initiative and is open to the public. Please RSVP here.
