Women and Legal Scholarship: A Bibliography

Compiled by

Paul M. George* & Susan McGlamery

Preface

This bibliography on Women and Legal Scholarship is a revised version of a bibliography originally prepared for the conference “Voices of Women: A Conference of Women in Legal Education” held April 20-21, 1990, at New York University School of Law. The Conference was sponsored by the Association of American Law Schools and the American Bar Association Commission on Women in the Profession and the ABA Section on Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar.

This compilation includes works about women in legal education and the legal profession, as well as legal scholarship on gender equality and feminist legal theory. It does not cover the much larger subject of the legal issues of women or all articles by women scholars. The bibliography is representative of its subject and is not an exhaustive list of articles and books.

Works are arranged in a few broad subject categories. Because the original conference was about women in the legal profession, the section on legal education and the legal profession is first. All other sections follow alphabetically. The bibliography includes citations which were available in indices and other sources through the spring of 1991.

*Assistant Director for Public Services, University of Southern California Law Library.
Reference Librarian, University of Southern California Law Library.

The compilers wish to thank Professor Judith Resnik of the University of Southern California Law Center and Dean Eleanor Fox of the New York University School of Law for their encouragement and support for this bibliography. In addition, we wish to express our gratitude to Mary Becker, Patricia Cain, Sylvia Law, Jean Love, and Lynn Schafran, whose comments and suggestions were invaluable. We also greatly appreciate the assistance from Brooks Paley, second year law student at the University of Southern California Law Center, and Misao Okino.
